

Rama and his journey

The gods were discussing about the demon and they sent an extraordinary human

So they sent a brave and half god named Rama
He always followed his dharma

Because of queen Kaikeyi Rama had to go and live in the woods for 14 years
So he left and said to his brother Bharata "The kingdom is all yours"

His brother Lakshmana wants to go with Rama also Sita wants to go with Rama

Rama refused to return home because he had to follow his dharma which was to obey his father's law and earn good karma

Bharata accepted his brother and wanted to represent him.
Bharata took the golden shoes to represent Rama and that he was ruling for him

Surpanakha first sees Rama and falls in love with him.
Surpanakha goes near him

Surpanakha asks Rama to love her
Rama said "I already have a wife but my brother will be interested" and rejects her.

Surpanakha wanted to revenge
so she got her brother and brother to revenge

The evil siblings kidnapped Sita
While Rama and Lakshmana followed Surpanakha

Hanuman wanted to help Rama
Hanuman went to Sita with the ring that Rama gave him to prove that he was with Rama

Rama led the monkey warriors and went to save Sita
They built a bridge for Sita

Rama shoots his arrows to Ravana

His heads go flying off “poor Ravana”

Everything finished and used his wisdom
And went back to rule the kingdom
